Prelude

Opening Hymn

“Come, Ye Thankful People, Come” # 892

1 Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come; Raise the song of har-vest home.
2 All the world is God's own field, Fruit un-to His praise to yield;
3 For the Lord, our God, shall come And shall take His har-vest home,
4 E - ven so, Lord, quick - ly come To Thy fi - nal har-vest home;

All be safe - ly gath-ered in Ere the win - ter storms be - gin;
Wheat and tares to - geth - er sown, Un - to joy or sor - row grown.
From His field shall in that day All of - fens - es purge a - way,
Gath - er Thou Thy peo - ple in, Free from sor-row, free from sin,

God, our mak - er, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied.
First the blade and then the ear, Then the full corn shall ap - pear.
Give His an - gels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast,
There, for - ev - er pu - ri - fied, In Thy gar - ner to a - bide:

Come to God's own tem-ple, come; Raise the song of har-vest home.
Lord of har-vest, grant that we Whole-some grain and pure may be.
But the fruit - ful ears to store In His gar - ner ev - er - more.
Come with all Thine an - gels, come, Raise the glo-rious har-vest home.

Invocation

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Confession and Assurance of Forgiveness

P If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

C If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(Silence for reflection and self-examination)

P Almighty and most merciful God,

C we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. We truly deserve your wrath and punishment. O Master, have mercy on us, for we have been faithless. For the sake of Jesus Christ, your obedient and faithful Son, make us clean, that we may rise to live before you in righteousness and true holiness.

P If we have died with Christ, we shall also live with him. For his sake, and in his name, I declare to you the full forgiveness of all your sins. Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead.

C Amen.

A Litany of Thanksgiving

P Our God proclaims, "Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and they shall rear their children and return."

C Move us to return to you with thankfulness and praise, O God.

P The prophet Isaiah proclaims, "The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing."

C Move us to return to you with joy and gladness, O God.

P Returning to our God means returning to pathways of peace and roads of righteousness.

C Where you go, we will go, O Lord.

P Returning to our God means returning to a new life of service, a new life of faith, and a new life in heaven.

C Where you are, we will be, O Lord.

P Return, O people of every nation and tribe, and find your rest in him.

C For the Lord has dealt bountifully with us.

P Return to the Lord, your God.

C For he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

The Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you

C And also with you.

P Let us pray: Let us pray. Almighty God, Your mercies are new every morning and You graciously provide for all our needs of body and soul. Grant us Your Holy Spirit that we may acknowledge Your goodness, give thanks for Your benefits, and serve You in willing obedience all our days; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Old Testament

Deuteronomy 11:1-7

Love the Lord your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always. [2] Remember today that your children were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the Lord your God: his majesty, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm; [3] the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country; [4] what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea as they were pursuing you, and how the Lord brought lasting ruin on them. [5] It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the desert until you arrived at this place, [6] and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them. [7] But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the Lord has done.

Second Lesson

Philippians 4:6-20

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. [7] And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. [8] Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. [9] Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. [10] I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. [11] I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. [12] I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. [13] I can do all this through him who gives me strength. [14] Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. [15] Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; [16] for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid more than once when I was in need. [17] Not that I desire your gifts; what I desire is that more be credited to your account. [18] I have received full payment and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. [19] And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus. [20] To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Holy Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. [12] As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance [13] and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!" [14] When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. [15] One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. [16] He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him--and he was a Samaritan. [17] Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? [18] Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" [19] Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Luther's Explanation to the First Article of the Apostle's Creed

P What is the First Article of the Apostles' Creed?

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

P What does this mean?

C I believe that God has made me and all creatures; that He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still takes care of them. He also gives me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, spouse and children, land, animals, and all I have. He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life. He defends me against all danger and guards and protects me from all evil. All this He does only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

Sermon

Prayers

ORDER OF HOLY COMMUNION

[P] The Lord be with you and bless you always.

[C] May He be with you and bless you!

[P] Lift up your hearts before the Lord.

[C] We lift them to the Lord Most High.

[P] Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

[C] It is right to give Him thanksgiving and praise.

[P] Almighty God, it is truly good, right, and salutary that we should offer You thanksgiving on this and every day. You have blessed us in every way. You have given us this land, and every day You pour out blessing after blessing upon us. The greatest blessing You have given us is in the forgiveness of sins given to us through Jesus' death on the cross. With that forgiveness, You give us in this Sacrament all we need for life. Hear us now as we pray:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

✠ The Words of Institution

P The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C And also with you.

The Distribution

Post-Communion Prayer

P We give thanks to You, Lord Jesus, for the blessings You have given us to eat and drink in the Sacrament! You give us all good things through Your promises. We praise You for removing our sins and strengthening our faith in the Holy Supper. Move us to always rejoice in Your many gifts; through Jesus Christ Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

The Benediction

P The Lord bless you and keep you; The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you; The Lord look upon you with favor, and give you peace.

C Amen.

Closing Hymn

“Now Thank We All Our God” # 895

1 Now thank we all our God With hearts and hands and voice - es,
2 Oh, may this boun-teous God Through all our life be near us,
3 All praise and thanks to God The Fa - ther now be giv - en,

Who won-drous things has done, In whom His world re - joic - es;
With ev - er joy - ful hearts And bless - ed peace to cheer us
The Son, and Him who reigns With them in high - est heav - en,

Who from our moth - ers' arms Has blest us on our way
And keep us in His grace And guide us when per - plexed
The one e - ter - nal God, Whom earth and heav'n a - dore;

With count-less gifts of love And still is ours to - day.
And free us from all ills In this world and the next!
For thus it was, is now, And shall be ev - er - more.
