Four Quarters

It's Football season!!!! Have you ever noticed how much sports announcers love to exaggerate the importance of a single play in a ball game? They love to say, "This is the play of the game, folks. It all comes down to this. The team's season is riding on the outcome of this playThe coach's future with the franchise might be determined by whether or not his team can convert this crucial third down." I think if they could get away with it, one of them would say, "The future of the free world is dependent on Tom Brady's ability to complete this next pass."

It is not too often that a game can be decided by one single play. The game is four quarters. There are 22 players on the field. They are a team. Success usually stems from the team working well together for the entire game! Sports announcers live and breathe hyperbole; they love to over-emphasize the significance of a single play. And so do many fans especially when it comes to mistakes. But any coach will tell you that games are not won or lost on a single play. Seasons don't ride on a single play. Careers aren't made on a single play.

Every play matters. Yes, in the highlights we see that some plays are more spectacular than others, but every play is a crucial play. I feel that this is true for the church, as well. In many ways, we are a team. We work together. We play hard for the entire game. This is what Paul had in mind when he wrote to the Corinthians and told them: "Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.. [26] If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. [27] Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it." (1 Cor. 12:14,26-27) Paul knew that the Church would only be successful in reaching the lost and proclaiming if the entire body of Christ was involved!

As Living Savior Lutheran Church moves into the fall, there are many exciting things taking place, as well as some wonderful opportunities to get involved. Our Sunday School has many returning teachers (including our Sunday School Director Leon Debolt!), and many new teachers! Our Men's group boasts two opportunities Saturday morning breakfast at 7:00 AM and an evening dinner on the last Thursday of each month. Jason Tolbert will be leading and coordinating our Sunday morning Bible Class. The fellowship committee has a full year of activities planned. Our choir will be enhancing our worship under the direction of Meghan Benson!

I can go on and on with all the opportunities Living Savior has for you and your family. I encourage you to invest yourselves in these ministries. We need you. Take the time to be a part of this body as we worship, pray, work and play together ---- for all four quarters!!!!

God's peace be with you this month!

Vicar's Voice

It's been wonderful getting to know Living Savior as a congregation over the past month. In the months before Vicarage, there's a lot of unknowns. What will my vicarage placement interview be like? What part of the country am I going to? Will the congregation be big or small? What about the weather – will I need to pack my snow boots? In meeting with the director of placement for a pre-vicarage interview and in attending the plethora of mandatory pre-vicarage meetings, all while trying to finish up a semester's worth of academic papers, tests, projects, and classes, it's all too easy to get caught up in the human side of vicarage. Where's the seminary going to place me? Where's the vicarage director going to send me? Where do I want to go?

Second year seminarians often lose the forest for the trees. We think that we get to choose where we're sent. We forget that it's God who sends. God who preserves. God who acts – through the seminary and the administration, certainly, but He's ultimately the one in control. Believe me, that's for the better. If Seminarians got to choose where they were sent both during their vicarage and their first call, the geographical makeup of LCMS Pastors and Vicars would be quite unique. Southern California with its beaches (and lack of humidity) and Colorado with its mountains would be full of fresh out of the seminary guys, and there wouldn't be a single Lutheran Pastor to minister to the massive Lutheran populations in the Dakotas and Northern Minnesota. Not knowing what the future has in store is often uncomfortable, but we don't go it alone. We have a gracious God, and He preserves us and cares for us.

And so, on the morning of May 1 this past Spring I was told that I would be moving to Northern Virginia to begin my vicarage at Living Savior. Wow! Just what I wanted – near a city on the East Coast. Yet I'd be pretty foolish to think my assignment was due to my own geographical preference rather than a result of the will of God who sends.

This first month has been great. The congregation has been wonderful, full of salt-of-the-earth parishioners and a quite-active lay leadership. The location can't be beat. The outreach at George Mason presents a welcome challenge. My only issue, and it's one that I can handle, is the brutal humidity during the summer, which thankfully is beginning to die off in favor of a more temperate climate. As a Northern Californian, I like to imagine that when sin, death, and the devil are destroyed on the Last Day, humidity will be too. One of my good friends who's from North Carolina said that heaven will be quite humid – the real miracle at the Last Day being that all of the West Coasters will finally acclimate to it. After he went on for a while, I realized that his view of heaven was simply North Carolina glorified and celestial, which I'm pretty sure is a minor heresy.

In my reflections on my own sending, I'm reminded Rally Day, September 8th. I've never really been at a congregation that has the same level of lay ministries, and I was amazed. What a bountiful harvest, and what numerous harvesters! God surely is sending out His people to care for each other and the surrounding community. God is certainly sending out laymen just as He has sent me – in different ways, but for the same purpose. To do the work He has set out for us to do. The Pastor and the Vicar aren't the church. The church is the church. Where two or three are gathered in God's name, He's there with them. So brothers and sisters in Christ, this year let us set out to do God's work together in His name. The harvest is plentiful, and the laborers are few. Let's all work together, preparing for the day when Christ returns and we can worship Him face to face in the kingdom without end (and hopefully without humidity).

September 15 to October 20, 2019

Klein Hall

9:50am to 10:50am

What exactly is divine revelation?

Can we have confidence that we have God's revelation in the Bible? What do we even mean we say the Scriptures are inspired? Starting Sunday, September 15, a six week adult Sunday school series will be facilitated by Jason Tolbert on the topic of Divine Revelation. We will meet in Klein Hall every Sunday between services starting at 9:50 AM. Miss a session? No worries. The series is such that you can easily jump right in on any session.

Worship and Music

“The Sacred Word Through Sacred Song”

I have a dear friend in California who spent 50 plus years in fulltime worship and music ministry. Many of those years were spent in one church. During his early years, he and his wife who was a very important partner in their ministry team, coined (and copyrighted) a phrase that described the emphasis of their shared ministry. That phrase was “The Sacred Word Through Sacred Song.”

It’s a wonderful motto that fully describes the role of music in the life of the Church. It was Martin Luther who said, “Music is the handmaiden of theology.” He also penned the famous quote, “Next to the Word of God, music deserves the highest praise.” My friend, as well as Luther, had it right!

While the spoken Word is “sharper than any two-edged sword (Heb. 4:12),” there are many times when the Word, combined with melody present a message that touches the heart in life-changing ways. The Book of Psalms was the first hymnal used by the people of God. We can safely say that the huge majority of those writings penned by King David and others were sung or intoned in regular synagogue worship. God’s gift of music was the means for those words to be conveyed and used in the life of His people.

Paul Christiansen, the son of the founder of the world famous St. Olaf Choir used to say, “Music has the power to take us into the realm of the Spirit.” Soaring melodies, quiet tunes, and meditative psalm tones are all ways in which the Sacred Word can and does proclaim God’s truths and takes us into the “realm of the Spirit.”

God bless your singing and worship as you read and reflect on the “Sacred Word.”

Burke/Fairfax CROP Hunger Walk Sunday, November 17, 2019 at 2pm

It's a GOLDEN YEAR for CROP Hunger Walk ...

And you can be part of the celebration!

Known as the "granddaddy of charity walks", CROP is celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2019!

What began on October 17, 1969, in Bismarck, ND, provided the impetus for the explosion of CROP Hunger Walks across the nation. On that day, one thousand people walked over 14 miles in what was the start of the hunger walks related to CROP – and raised $25,000 to help stop hunger. Youths in York County, PA, followed in 1970, officially calling their event "CROP Walk for the Hungry" – and that event has been continuous ever since.

Because teens and their communities in ND and PA cared 50 years ago, millions of people around the nation have since responded and helped to raise more than $1 billion to end poverty and hunger -- at home and around the world. Read The History of the CROP Hunger Walk for more details.

"50 years of walking. 50 years of ending hunger together." Our community's commitment to this incredible CROP legacy will continue with this year's 27th annual Burke/Fairfax CROP Hunger Walk on Sunday, November 17, 2019. The Walk route is about 5 kilometers (2.8 miles) and begins at Fairfax Presbyterian Church (10723 Main Street, Fairfax).

PLEASE NOTE:

This date is ONE WEEK EARLIER than our usual "Sunday before Thanksgiving"

On Tuesday, November 12th, hundreds of guests will gather to celebrate 25 years of lives saved, and to look forward to the future God has for this incredible ministry.

Featuring Special Guest Speaker Abby Johnson

Abby Johnson has always had a fierce determination to help women in need. It was this desire that both led Abby to a career with Planned Parenthood, our nation’s largest abortion provider, and caused her to flee the organization and become an outspoken advocate for the pro-life movement. During her eight years with Planned Parenthood, Abby quickly rose in the organization’s ranks and became a clinic director. She was increasingly disturbed by what she witnessed. Abortion was a product Planned Parenthood was selling, not an unfortunate necessity that they fought to decrease. All of that changed on September 26, 2009 when Abby was asked to assist with an ultrasound-guided abortion. She watched in horror as a 13 week baby fought, and ultimately lost, its life at the hand of the abortionist. At that moment, the full realization of what abortion was and what she had dedicated her life to washed over Abby and a dramatic transformation took place.

Desperate and confused, Abby sought help from a local pro-life group. She swore that she would begin to advocate for life in the womb and expose abortion for what it truly is. She is a frequently requested guest on Fox News and a variety of other shows and the author of the nationally best-selling book, Unplanned, which chronicles both her experiences within Planned Parenthood and her dramatic exit.

Living Savior Preschool

Living Savior Preschool starts up for the 2019-2020 school year!

The preschool enters its 28th year!!! We held our Open House on Wednesday, August 28th and on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 3rd and 4th we started classes. Our hours are from 9:15 to 1:15 for all classes. We also offer Stay 'N Play (SNP) which is our after school program every day from 1:15-2:10 p.m.

The past few weeks have been a busy and exciting time for LSP. We cleaned and set up our classrooms in preparation for the new school year. We are excited about the prospect of beginning a new school year with all of the children and their families as we continue to enhance our program for the 2019-2020 school year. We are also blessed to have such a dedicated and wonderful Christian staff to work with again this year. We are excited to be welcoming 3 new teachers to our staff! Sarah Loesch is joining our staff as the lead Duck teacher and Sarah Lasmanis and Harmony Carrano join us as Monkey teachers.

September will be busy at LSP. Our Parent Orientation was held the first Wednesday in September. Kaydee Puppets will be at LSP the second week of September to present two stories to the children. The children and teachers will enjoy the presentation! Later in the month the children, their families and the LSP staff will gather for the Annual Preschool Potluck Dinner. This year the potluck dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, September 25th. It is a wonderful opportunity for families to gather for the first time and enjoy some fellowship. We will have a full house for sure as all our classes gather for dinner on that night! It will be an exciting start to the school year!

We kicked off our school year with our annual Midland Fundraiser. We would like to thank the church and school community who supported our fundraiser this year! We are raising money to enrich our curriculum cart and manipulative shelves in the classrooms. In addition to the Midland Fundraiser, Living Savior Preschool will be collecting Box Tops for Education again this year. All you have to do is clip the box tops and place them in the box in the preschool wing near the parent bulletin board. New this year is that Box Tops For Education is phasing out the cardboard tops you clip off of packages. Now you scan your store receipt on the Box Top app on your smartphone and qualifying items you have purchased will be added to the Living Savior Preschool account. We are hoping for another successful year with our current fundraisers and are grateful to all who have supported us in the past!

If you know of any families who are looking for a warm, positive, Christian preschool experience, we have a couple spaces still available in each class. We would be happy to answer any questions they may have about our school. We can be reached at 703-352-4208 to set up a tour or by email at preschool@livingsaviorlutheran.org. We look forward to another great year with all of the children and their families!

A Farewell letter from Vicar Nils Niemeier July 2018 -August 2019

"I never stop giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers." (Ephesians 1:16 EHV)

Dear Friends at Living Savior,

It is hard to believe that a year has already passed and my vicarage is now at an end. What a year it has been! I have been involved in and done so much with you— baptisms, a wedding, thirty sermons preached, campus ministry work at George Mason, the National Youth Gathering, confirmation class, Men's Group dinners and breakfasts, the Men's Retreat, work days, adult Sunday school— so much has happened, and the year has gone by far too quickly.

Looking at my final year of study at Concordia Seminary coming up on the horizon, I wish to say, yet again, how thankful I am to you, the people of Living Savior Lutheran Church for all your friendship, love, and support this year. I honestly could not have asked for a better congregation with which to serve! I am extremely grateful for your lovely gift of the four stoles, and I am looking forward to wearing them with pride when I am, God-willing, ordained and installed in a congregation next year. You all have been a great gift from God to me, and I am thankful for every single one of you!

At this time, I can happily announce that all of my vicarage reports and projects have been graded by the seminary and that I received full marks on all of them. So it seems that, echoing what Pastor Lissy said at the end of the final service last Sunday, I have indeed "passed" vicarage with flying colors. Your love and encouragement had much to do with that, so thank you for that, too!

I am currently in Reston for another week, but will be driving back to St. Louis for my final year of studies on August 13. Expect to see frequent letters from me while at the seminary, but if you ever wish to get in touch with me, I can be reached at the following:

Thank you again for everything this year, and I look forward to visiting with you all again soon!

P.S. I look forward to seeing the great things that Vicar Singer will do with you this year. He will be a blessing to you and you to him!

A Note of Thanks from the Vicar Nils Family:

Dear Members of Living Savior Lutheran Church,

Thank you for making us feel so completely at home and a part of your congregation during Nils' vicarage year. We had heard that LSLC is a very warm and welcoming community of worship, and this is most certainly true! You have shown us so many kindnesses that will not be forgotten and you have cared for our son with such love – the ultimate gift to us.

You will see us again and count on us to purchase our Christmas tree from you!

Serving at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Herndon, VA with you –

To: Living Savior Lutheran Church from the Cecil's — missionaries to Germany

Grüße, Greetings! We continue to see God's blessings in everything we do. Our refugees are starting to see God's gift of faith in our Lord Jesus. We are preparing for our second Christmas (Weihnachten) with our refugees.

Please join our Christmas celebration by sending Christmas cards to our refugees at Weststr 1, 01157 Dresden, Germany. Please have them arrive by December 1st. Thank you.

God has blessed us and our mission. Our refugees have freedom to worship in peace that was not possible in Iran and Afghanistan. We are waging war against the Evil one over eternal souls. God provides a way.

Gott segne dich, God bless you!

DeinBruder und deine Schwester in Christus!
