On-line services have become vital for many of our parishioners. In order to provide a high-quality worship experience, we need trained volunteers to run the cameras and audio systems. Please contact Pastor, Dr. Horton, or the Communication Ministry Lead Habtu Mesfen at hmlh01@gmail.com.

Financial support, both periodically and monthly, is also encouraged to supplement the donations. Please contact Betty at BettyGCook@gmail.com with questions or if you can help with this ministry. Please contact Tyna Gaylor at LSLCAssistantTreasurer@gmail.com if you need help setting up monthly contributions to Living Savior for the Ark. Learn more about the Ark at <https://www.facebook.com/concordiafoodministry>

Adult Sunday School has started every Sunday between services at 9:50 in Klein Hall. The topic will be the "End Times." This series will explore various Christian views and biblical interpretations of the "end times" doctrine and the second coming of Jesus. We'll also examine how these perspectives compare with a Lutheran understanding of this doctrine. Everyone is welcome to join, and the series is structured so you can jump in at any time or miss a session without feeling left behind. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to Jason Tolbert at jasontolbert@gmail.com.

Women's Bible Study has begun! The book is Waiting by Sharla Fritz. The author writes about women in the Bible who waited and invites us to experience the challenge of waiting well. There are two discussion groups. One meets Tuesdays at 7:30 PM at church in the Youth Room. The other meets Thursdays at 7 PM on Zoom. The study will end before Thanksgiving for both groups. Books are available for $10.00. Questions? Contact Joan Horton--703-425-2531, celloorgan@verizon.net. Please consider making Bible study part of your fall plans.

REMEMBERING THE SAINTS - On All Saints Sunday (November 2) at both morning services, we will remember the faithful departed from the past year.
