Facts or Friendship

In his book "Out of the Question, Into the Mystery" Len Sweet tells about taking his daughter, Soren, to the dentist. Soren had always been terrified of dentists, so Len picked the one with the best reputation in town.

At his office, as Soren climbed into the big chair, which she referred to as a torture chamber, the dentist showed off his new equipment -- designed specifically to cause less pain and take less time. And then he began to drill. Soren screamed, cried, twisted, turned and had to be held down. When he was finally finished, the dentist asked the Sweets never to return. Within two weeks Soren's new fillings had fallen out.

Finally, Soren was persuaded to try another dentist. This one was different. When she arrived for her appointment the dentist spent the first part of the appointment getting to know her, talking about her likes and dislikes, telling her about his own daughters.

After 25 minutes of conversation, he had earned her trust enough that she was able to open her mouth, and 15 minutes later his work was finished.

The difference between the two dentists was significant. The first tried to gain her trust through facts and information, the second gained her trust through compassion and friendship.

The Apostle Paul tells us: "Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience." (Colossians 3:12) As Living Savior Lutheran Church continues to reach out to our community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, let us reach out with that same compassion. One of my former District President's always told us "People will not care how much you know, until they know how much you care!" AMEN!!!

WORSHIP AND MUSIC MINISTRY "LISTENING . . . The Gift of Prayer"

One of the great gifts from the Lord we have as Christians is the gift of prayer. We have numerous examples throughout Scripture of the importance of prayer from prophets praying, to disciples asking about prayer, to St. Paul teaching about prayer, and to examples of our Lord praying on a number of different occasions. Prayer is, indeed, a gift that we should not neglect.

Prayer also plays an important part in our time together as the worshipping Body of Christ. Prayer before worship, the Prayer of the Day, the Lord's Prayer, prayer before and after communion, and the Prayers of the People are examples of our use of prayer as a part of our worship.

One of the areas, however, that we may not have considered both in our private worship and in our corporate worship is "Listening Prayer," times when we follow the directive of the psalmist, "Be still and know that I am God. (Ps. 46:10)"

I am reminded of a story I heard from the Christian Sociologist, Tony Campolo, about ten years ago. He shared that Mother Teresa was being interviewed and was asked about prayer. The interviewer asked her, "When you pray to God, what do you say?" Mother Teresa replied, "I don't say anything. I listen." The interviewer, a bit puzzled, continued by asking, "Well, what does God say?" She replied, "God doesn't say anything. He listens."

Many times in our prayer life (corporate and private) we are so busy telling God what we "need" and want that we fail to simply listen. It may take a little time to "hear from God." But always remember as Oswald Chambers reminds us, God is never late and God is never in a hurry. He communicates with us through silence as waiting as well as through His Holy Spirit.

May our time of prayer in worship be a time when we are listening and meditating on God's Word for us as He speaks to us in the stillness of those quiet moments in our worship.
