Come As You Are

There is a story from ancient Greek mythology, where we learn of a troubled and broken old man who made pilgrimage to the foot of Mount Olympus to make intercession with the gods, who were believed to inhabit that mountain. This tired, weary, dying man was met by a priest who said to him: "Do you not know that the gods who sit atop Mount Olympus will never look upon the form of a dying man?" This is certainly not the information that troubled and helpless people want or need to hear!

However, there is another mountain where a troubled and broken man was brought. We read in Luke 23: "Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left." (V. 32-33) Then one of those broken men, dying next to Jesus — next to the Son of God — pleads before: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." (V. 42). Please note that the response to this request is NOT, "God will never look upon the form of a dying man." Rather, the response is, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise." (V. 43). Here a dying man, a thief in fact, turns to Jesus in the throes of death, begging for mercy, and Jesus promises this broken man a place in his kingdom.

We come before our Lord seeking aid, imploring help from beyond ourselves. Thank God it is not to Mount Olympus we come, but to Mount Calvary. And we are welcome. The Christ who has himself died here is ready to look upon the form of any man, or woman, living or dying. His compassions do not fail. So we come as we are, certain that his mercy knows no bounds.

God's continued peace this month,

Pastor Andrew C. Lissy

Vicar's Voice

¹ And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness ² for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days. And when they were ended, he was hungry.”

– Luke 4:1-2 (ESV)

Upon arriving at church on Sunday, you'll notice how the paraments at the front of the sanctuary have turned purple. And the color purple is typically used during one season of the church year: the Season of Lent. That's right, we have now begun the forty day journey from Ash Wednesday to Holy Saturday (that is, the Saturday before Easter Sunday).

Now some of you may have been disappointed that Ash Wednesday this year fell on the same day as Valentine's Day. You may be wondering who the bright person was that decided to place a somber celebration of the church on a popular US holiday. Seriously, who wants to remember a day of death on a day which celebrates romance?

To answer that question, we can start from Easter Sunday (April 1st this year) and count backwards 40 days. That will get you to February 20th, but then add 6 more days to that backwards count (the 6 Sundays in Lent are not considered part of the 40 days) and you arrive at February 14th! Thus, the Season of Lent is celebrated for 40 days.

But why 40 days? To answer this, we turn to Scripture and read the story about Jesus' temptation in the wilderness. After being baptized, Luke tells us how the Spirit sent Jesus into the wilderness for 40 days. There, Jesus fasted and faced much trial and temptation from the devil Himself.

Now the theme of 40 days is not exclusive to the life of Jesus as told in the Gospels. In fact, the Old Testament is filled with events involving 40 days. Genesis 7 shares with us how the rain which flooded the whole earth fell for 40 days and 40 nights. Deuteronomy 9 tells how Moses was with God on Mt. Sinai for the same length when writing the Ten Commandments, not eating anything. Even the prophet Ezekiel was given the unusual task of laying on his side for 40 days, bearing the 40-year punishment of Judah. In short, the theme of 40 days in Scripture often denotes a time of trial and punishment.

Now the 40-day examples above demonstrate that which is reserved for those who rebel against God. Fasting is meant to help us focus and dedicate more time to God, while trial and temptation should only seem to affect sinners. Therefore, what is Jesus, the sinless, perfect Son of God, doing out in the wilderness? If He Himself doesn't sin, why does He endure fasting and temptation? Even the devil pushes Jesus to use His power to turn stones into bread, just so Jesus can alleviate His hunger!

But the Lord remained unmoved from the devil's attacks and persisted through those 40 days. And even though the 40 days were up, the temptation and accusations against Him remained. They remained in Gethsemane where Jesus prayed that He would not have to bear our cup of sin. They remained as He bore our lashes. And they even remained as He lay dying on our cross.

All the trial and punishment we deserved was borne by Jesus, borne by the Only One who could perfectly bear it. Here, we see the greatest act of love done by our God, our God who became incarnate in Jesus so that we may have Eternal Life.

In this Season of Lent, brothers and sisters, we take this time to reflect and meditate upon our trial and punishment which Jesus took upon Himself. Through these 40 days, we follow Jesus to the cross. Some of us may choose to surrender a daily pleasure for Lent as a means of reflection upon what Jesus did. Others may instead add to their daily routines things such as extra devotions or prayer time. Regardless, of your Lenten practice, it is my encouragement to take extra time each day to focus on the life and work of our Savior. Only through Him do we truly find hope in this life, a hope given to us on that cross. Wishing you the Lord's peace in this Lenten Season!

The Trinity

Led by Jason Tolbert
Klein Hall —9:45am

We know that God has revealed Himself in scripture as a Trinity, but what does that really mean? How can we understand the concept of “three but yet one”? How do we understand the distinct persons within the Trinity? How do they relate to each other? Is the concept of a Trinity self-contradictory? How do the distinct persons each relate to us, our salvation, and our walk as a Christian?

Please join us for an open and engaging Dialogue on Sunday morning!

Living Savior Preschool

Lutheran Schools Week

March 5th through March 9th the preschool will be celebrating Lutheran School's Week. The theme for this year is "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever." (Hebrews 13:8) Lutheran schools are great blessings to the congregations that support them and to the students and families who enjoy their services. It is a time when our congregation and school reflect on the ways God touches the children and their families.

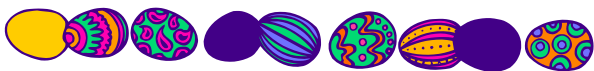

In honor of Lutheran School's Week the children will decorate the halls with special art work and honor their teachers with flowers and handmade cards. Each class will also take time to plant spring bulbs in honor of Lutheran Schools Week. On Tuesday, March 6th the staff will enjoy a luncheon in their honor. During Lutheran School's Week the families of LSP will present the teachers with special treats and a yummy breakfast. We invite all members of the congregation to visit our school and see the joy we have in bringing God's love to little children!

This month at school ...

During the month of March the children will learn about wind and weather changes, nutrition, exercise, and making healthy food choices. Our very own Miss Anne, a registered nurse, will teach us about keeping our bodies healthy during a special presentation.

Our main focus during March will be Easter. Our activities will include Palm Sunday parades, egg hunts and lessons about the death and resurrection of Our Lord.

Box Tops for Education

LSP participates in the Box Tops for Education fundraiser each year. The money we earn helps support preschool curriculum. If you would like to help us, please look for the Box Top on the food items you buy. Cut them out and leave them in the church office in an envelope marked "Preschool" on Sundays or drop them by the preschool office during the week. Thank you!

Pennies for Patients

For the sixth year in a row, LSP will participate in the "Pennies for Patients" program sponsored by the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society (LLS). Pennies for Patients is a program that gives school-based communities, such as the children at Living Savior, a chance to make a difference for families and children fighting blood cancers. The children will collect spare change around their house and place it in a Pennies for Patients box to help support the research and cure for cancer. This outreach is one way the children of Living Savior Preschool can give back to others. As a Christian community we hope to make a difference in someone's life!

Registration

Registration for the 2018 – 2019 preschool year is now open to the general public. We still have openings in our classes. If you are interested or you know someone who is interested in registering, please call the preschool office at 703-352-4208 for information or stop by the office and pick up a brochure. 5 May Country Concert and BBQ Potluck!

Please join us - with all your family and friends - for an evening of quality country music, bodacious BBQ, and fantastic fellowship to hear up-and-coming Country star Monica Rizzio! Her first CD, Washashore Cowgirl, was nominated for the Independent Music Awards Country Album of the Year. From that review: "Monica Rizzio shines with righteous zeal on Washashore Cowgirl. Monica Rizzio's first solo CD is chockfull of great original country and country roots songs. Originally from Texas, this Cape Cod resident shows she can project plenty of her southern girl charm and sensibility into her original songs and standards. It's who she is. Rizzio is certainly a country girl at her core. She doesn't just write, sing, play, and record these songs, she makes them jump out of the speaker with a fresh energy and determination." Monica has graciously agreed to perform for us on the evening of her niece's First Communion, and - as a 'starving artist' - will likely join us for BBQ and dessert after the concert. Come one and all - then you can say "I saw her before she was a star!" <https://monicarizzio.com>
