April 2018 Newsletter

Look Up

When I was growing up, I lived for baseball. I loved it. When I entered into sixth grade, I had to get glasses!! But I remember one game right after I got glasses. I was really having problems adjusting to them. I missed two fly balls and got our team behind several runs. I came to the bunch with my head bowed. I felt so bad that I didn't want to look at anyone. Suddenly, I felt a hand on my shoulder and there was my coach (who thankfully was my father!), and he said: "Hold your head up!" When I looked up, I saw a coach who still believed in me and friends there to encourage me. I wanted to look down, for that's how I felt, but they would not let me.

And that's what I find that stands out to me about the hymn "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." What do you do when you find yourself in way over your head? When you have really blown it? Where do you turn? To whom do you look?

"My Faith Looks Up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine. Now hear me as I pray; Take all my guilt away; O let me from this day Be wholly Thine." [Lutheran Service Book # 702]

I have found in my life that there are lots of experiences that will make us want to fasten our eyes to the ground, that will sink us into depression, so that we withdraw into our own little world. All we then will see is our pain, our guilt, our limitations, what we can't do, what we don't have.

Let me tell you, looking down all the time makes you down! It limits you. You can see only a few feet. That's the circumference of your world! But it doesn't have to be! Our eyes are to be up, not down! Our vision is set to the horizon! For ours is a faith in a God bigger than our circumstances, a God who is "enthroned in the heavens." When life tells you, "Look down! Get down on yourself" that's when you got to remember to hold your head up! To force your eyes to the heavens, to remind yourself of the One who made you and who is ever with you.

God's Peace This month!

Vicar's Voice

¹ On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³ but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. ⁵ In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead?" ⁶ He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ⁷ 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'"

— Luke 24:1-7 (NIV)

Not long ago, I heard a sermon that was preached at a memorial service. In that sermon, the pastor talked about how God uses angels to guide and protect us. He then went on to reference the Bible passage above in order to bring death and life into perspective. More specifically, the pastor referenced it to ask all in attendance the same question these two angels asked the women in the tomb: "Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

Now we know how this question refers to Jesus. The women noticed that Jesus' body was missing upon entering the tomb. Because they believed Him to still be dead, they were curious as to where His body could have been taken. However, two angels appear to share the truth about Jesus in that moment: Jesus is alive; He has risen from the dead!

Yet the pastor in this message still posed this question to the congregation. And he was not referring to Jesus; rather, he was referring to the lady whose life was being celebrated at this particular memorial service. "Why," he asked, "do you look for the living among the dead?" In other words, "why do you look for this person among the dead when she is alive?"

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, when we consider the death and resurrection of Jesus, we find this singular event to be the center of our salvation. In His resurrection, the past and future are brought together. The Faith of Israel which saw God as Redeemer from death and the grave was finally realized in Jesus' resurrection. Even more, those who would come to know Jesus generations later would receive this same redemption from death, even those today! This central moment of Jesus' death and resurrection is what our salvific hope hinges on, which brings together all of Scripture. Without it, our Faith is in vain; it cannot save.

In Jesus' death and resurrection, the verdict on us by Jesus, the Great Judge, has already been made clear: We are deemed righteous. And this is not only the verdict which awaits us on the Last Day, but also the verdict which stands now. We are already citizens of Heaven, thanks be to God!

However, the life we now have in Christ does not prevent us from experiencing death. Because of our sin, we must still die in order to rid ourselves of this sin. Yet, our Faith in Jesus' death and resurrection does not allow death to have the final word. This is why, when our time to leave this life arrives, the faithful still on earth can ask others the same question, the same question both the angels in Luke and the pastor in his sermon asked: "Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

As we celebrate the Resurrection of our Risen Lord, Jesus Christ, this Easter, let us remember the verdict which Christ put on us in our baptism: Justified. Our judgement is life eternal. Let us live and share this Good News with all who do not know Jesus, that they can come to experience this same joy, and celebrate this same salvation with us!

Remember to wear your name tag.

If you need a nametag, contact the church office and Steve Galing will make you one. Let's all make a commitment to get to know each other better this year.

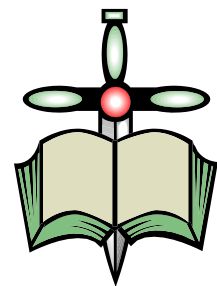

New Adult Bible Study

Led by David Huxsoll

beginning April 8th

at 9:50am

in Klein Hall

- Law and Gospel

The Lutheran Reformation began when God, through the Scriptures, opened Martin Luther's mind to the scriptural distinction between the Law and the Gospel. Beginning April 8, David Huxsoll will be leading a four-week study on "Law and Gospel" during the adult Bible study hour in Klein Hall. This study will explore how the Spirit works through both Law and Gospel to bring people to faith in Jesus Christ.

Or at Concordia Seminary St. Louis, MO Vocatio June 23-28, 2018 Find God's Calling For Your Life

Vocatio is a fun opportunity for high school students entering grades nine through 12 to participate in Bible study, worship and discussion about vocation. This five-day retreat on Concordia Seminary's campus encourages participants to find God's calling for their lives through studying theology, learning from Seminary professors and engaging in thoughtful conversation.

Throughout the week, Vocatio participants engage in several different exciting opportunities, including: Servant Event, Worship, College Fair (Students learn about the Concordia University System and the programs they offer to prepare students to do Christ's work in the world.) and St. Louis Attractions.

Registration and Travel

The registration deadline for the 2018 event is June 1, 2018.

Registration is now open.

A $150 registration fee to attend is the only charge for high school students, in addition to travel costs. Participants are responsible for their own transportation, but scholarships are available to ensure that travel costs do not prevent students from attending. Please contact the admissions office in you would like to apply for a scholarship.

If arriving by air, bus or train, please provide your full itinerary as the Seminary provides complimentary shuttles from the airport, bus and train terminals.

$1000.00 has been set aside from the Christmas Tree Sales to help students wanting to attend these or other ministry exploration days. Check with Jonathan Loesch for more details.

Bridgeway Church

Our History: All by God's grace ...
Bridgeway Church had its first worship gathering on September 7, 2014, with a VISION "to see our world transformed by the Gospel of Jesus Christ" and a MISSION "to lead people to full maturity in Jesus Christ". We are part of the Southern Baptist Convention, which is "a network of autonomous churches voluntarily banded together to engage in missions enterprises and ministry activities designed to fulfill the Great Commission of our Lord."
(www.sbc.net) We are humbled and excited to be part of what God is doing around the world through His 2000-year-old movement known as the Church! We are also grateful to the leaders and congregants of the Living Savior Lutheran Church in warmly welcoming us in sharing their facilities and look forward to serving together for God's Kingdom.
(www.bridgeway.global)

Our Pastor: Danny Chung was born in Seoul, Korea but immigrated to Toronto, Canada at the age of 8. His early interests were in the area of Art & Design until God called him into pastoral ministry during his senior year in University. (A long awaited answer to his grandmother's prayers!) Pastor Danny is a graduate of the University of Toronto and Tyndale Seminary, as well as Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Boston, MA. He and his better half, Angela, have two young daughters, Charis and Cadee (plus a year old Shih Tzu named Sadie).

Transition into our new home:

Coordinating and working with Marie Acevedo has made our transition a huge success.

May 5, 2018 BBQ Potluck

4:30pm (Bring a side dish or dessert)

& Monica Rizzio Country Concert and 6pm Concert

Please join us - with all your family and friends - for an evening of quality country music, bodacious BBQ, and fantastic fellowship to hear up-and-coming Country star Monica Rizzio!

Her first CD, Washashore Cowgirl, was nominated for the Independent Music Awards Country Album of the Year. From that review: "Monica Rizzio shines with righteous zeal on Washashore Cowgirl. Monica Riz-zio's first solo CD is chockfull of great original country and country roots songs. Originally from Texas, this Cape Cod resident shows she can project plenty of her southern girl charm and sensibility into her original songs and standards. It's who she is. Rizzio is certainly a country girl at her core. She doesn't just write, sing, play, and record these songs, she makes them jump out of the speaker with a fresh energy and determination."

Monica has graciously agreed to perform for us on the evening of her niece's First Communion, and - as a 'starving artist' - will likely join us for BBQ and dessert after the concert. Come one and all - then you can say "I saw her before she was a star!" <https://monicarizzio.com>

Concordia Lutheran Church Food Ministry

The food ministry provides food, clothing, and spiritual blessings for 80+ families every Wednesday from 5 -- 8pm at Concordia Lutheran Church in Triangle, VA.

As you do your grocery shopping remember those that need extra help — grab a few extra cans or boxes of staples and drop them the bins for Concordia — it will be much appreciated! In addition to food, Concordia is in need of gently used shoes and coats. They also appreciate used grocery bags either Plastic or Paper. Most needed items are non-perishable food, clothing and Bibles.

Send monetary donations to:
Concordia Food Ministry,
P.O. Box 336, Triangle, VA 22172-0336

For more information contact Laurie MacPherson, Tim Heetland, Mary Heetland, or the social ministry leads or and/or facebook.

A Thank you from Concordia Lutheran Church 3637 Graham Park Rd, P.O. Box 336, Triangle, VA 22172-0336 February 20, 2018

To members of Living Savior Lutheran Church,

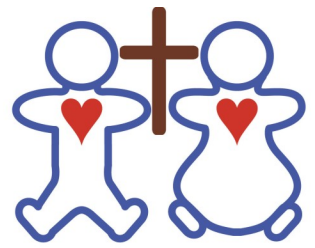

In behalf of the members of Concordia, I thank you for your very generous gift of $1,200.00 to our Food Ministry. Pastor John has dedicated himself to serving our community at great personal cost and sacrifice.
Recognition in this way by a sister congregation is at least as much a word of encouragement as it is a tangible gift that will support several weeks of food purchases for the ministry.

May you be blessed as you have demonstrated the grace of giving for the benefit of others.

Yours in Christ,
James R. Knill, Sr. Pastor

Living Savior Preschool

April Highlights

April will begin with new life and searching for all the signs of new hope that God has given us. As part of our science curriculum, caterpillars and ants will arrive early in April! The children will anxiously await the metamorphosis from caterpillar to the beautiful painted lady butterfly and observe the ants as they tunnel through the ant farms. We will discuss the importance of spring and new life and how Jesus shows us this sign in the flowers, trees and everything around us.

During late April and early May we will honor each child's special person with Special Person's Tea Parties. The children will be presenting unique gifts and singing songs for their very own Special Person.

April also provides the opportunity for parents to connect with their child's teacher's during our conferences which are held twice a year. The children are assessed throughout the year and the parents are updated on their progress.

April will be a very busy month once again at Living Savior Preschool! It will be a month of hope, love, and new life!

Pennies for Patients

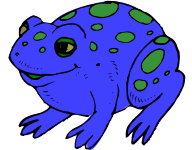

For the seventh year in a row, LSP participated in the "Pennies for Patients" program sponsored by the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society (LLS). Pennies for Patients is a program that gives school-based communities, such as the children at Living Savior, a chance to make a difference for families and children fighting blood cancers such as leukemia and lymphoma. The children collected spare change around their houses and placed it in a Pennies for Patients Box to help support the research and cure for cancer. LSP will tally the coins soon and submit a check to the LLS on behalf of the children and families of LSP. This outreach is one way the children of Living Savior Preschool can "Stand in Christ and serve others." As a Christian community we hope to make a difference in someone's life.

Registration

Registration for the 2018-2019 preschool year is ongoing. We have a spots available in all of our classes. If you are interested or know someone interested in registering, please call the preschool office at 703-352-4208.

Hidden Pond Nature Center

Later this month the Turtle class will attend Hidden Pond Nature Center for a field trip. They will take a guided tour through the park discovering nature and animals in their own habitat as God has planned it to be. The program also includes a walk around the pond where they will look for frogs and observe the life cycle of a frog. It will be a wonderful educational experience for all of the children.

Summer Camp

Once again we will have our highly successful Summer Camp Program here at Living Savior Preschool. It is open to any child 3 – 5 years of age. The three Camp sessions will run Monday through Thursday.
