Happy New Year, everyone! - We are excited to announce a new Adult Sunday School series on the topic of the End Times, facilitated by Jason Tolbert. This series will explore various Christian views and biblical interpretations of the "end times" doctrine and the second coming of Jesus. The sessions will take place in Klein Hall between services at 9:50 AM. We'll also examine how these perspectives compare with a Lutheran understanding of this doctrine. Everyone is welcome to join, and the series is structured so you can jump in at any time or miss a session without feeling left behind. If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to Jason Tolbert at jasontolbert@gmail.com.

Stewardship Moment - Starting this month through the end of the year, we will provide opportunities to share Stewardship Moments with our congregation. These moments offer a platform to inspire one another as we shine the light of Jesus into our community. During the announcements following our services, Pastor Andy will invite anyone who wishes to stand up and share how they have served others or made a positive impact. These experiences remind us of the abundance and blessings God provides in our lives. If you have a special story where someone showed kindness or demonstrated good stewardship, please consider sharing it during our weekly Stewardship Moments. Remember, as Galatians 6:2 says, "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ," and 1 Peter 4:10 reminds us, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms."

Stewardship Theme for January
