WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

Today's Gospel is the well-known story of the Ten Lepers who came to Jesus to ask for his healing. In addition to the Gospel narrative we hear the wonderful story of Ruth's faithfulness to and love for her mother-in-law, Naomi. May both of these accounts from Scripture remind each of us of the great love that our God has for us.

PRELUDE

Great Are You, Lord

Confession and Assurance of Forgiveness

P: If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

C: If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(Silence for reflection and self-examination)

P: Most merciful God,

C: We confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in our thinking, in our speaking, and in our doing. We have not appreciated the faith you have given us, nor have we exercised it as we ought. We have stumbled and fallen on the way. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P: Our gracious God has given us the faith we need to live in this world, to resist temptation, and to live with him eternally. By the mercy of God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake our sins are forgiven. Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

C: Amen.

God,

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray: Faithful God, look kindly upon us in our worship today that our faith may increase in the truths revealed by Your Holy Spirit in Your Word, and in the divine food of Your sacramental feast. Continually work within us that we may winsomely proclaim our Lord's death and resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

GOD SPEAKS TO HIS PEOPLE THROUGH HIS HOLY WORD

First Lesson

Ruth 1:1-19a

In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while in the country of Moab. [2] The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there. [3] Now Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons. [4] They married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. After they had lived there about ten years, [5] both Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband. [6] When she heard in Moab that the Lord had come to the aid of his people by providing food for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law prepared to return home from there. [7] With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah. [8] Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's home. May the Lord show kindness to you, as you have shown to your dead and to me. [9] May the Lord grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband." Then she kissed them and they wept aloud [10] and said to her, "We will go back with you to your people." [11] But Naomi said, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands? [12] Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me--even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons-- [13] would you wait until they grew up? Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the Lord's hand has gone out against me!" [14] At this they wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-by, but Ruth clung to her. [15] "Look," said Naomi,

"your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her." [16] But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. [17] Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the Lord deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me." [18] When Naomi realized that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her. [19] So the two women went on until they came to Bethlehem.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 111

Spoken responsively

L Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

C Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.

L Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

C He has caused his wondrous works to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and merciful.

L He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.

C He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

L The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy;

C they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

L He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name!

C The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

C Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Second Lesson

2 Timothy 2:2-13

And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others. [3] Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. [4] No one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs--he wants to please his commanding officer. [5] Similarly, if anyone competes as an athlete, he does not receive the victor's crown unless he competes according to the rules. [6] The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops. [7] Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this. [8] Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David. This is my gospel, [9] for which I am suffering even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But God's word is not chained. [10] Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. [11] Here is a trustworthy saying: If we died with him, we will also live with him; [12] if we endure, we will also reign with him. If we disown him, he will also disown us; [13] if we are faithless, he will remain faithful, for he cannot disown himself.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

P The Holy Gospel according to St....

C Glory to you, O Lord.

Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. [12] As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance [13] and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!" [14] When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. [15] One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. [16] He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him--and he was a Samaritan. [17] Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? [18] Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" [19] Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."

Sermon

“Rotten”

Luke 17:11-19
Vicar Luke Onken

WE CONFESS OUR FAITH – THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. The third day he rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And he will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church, we acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF GOD'S PEOPLE

At the end of each petition, the congregation responds, "Hear our prayer."

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P Almighty and everlasting God, remembering your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we take from your creation this bread and wine and joyfully celebrate his dying and rising, as we await the day of his coming. With thanksgiving we offer our very selves to you to be a living and holy sacrifice, dedicated to your service. For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
