

Maundy Thursday

April 9, 2020

The name for this day comes from the Latin word "mandatum," meaning "commandment." It refers to the two "new" commandments our Lord gave to His disciples on this day. The first is "love one another," and the second is "do this in remembrance of Me." In the early church, Maundy Thursday was also the day on which those who had fallen away from the Church were restored to full fellowship with other believers after having observed the 40-day penitential season of Lent. Today we are reminded of the reconciliation we have because of Christ's body and blood given for the forgiveness of our sin, and the example of self-giving love shown by our Lord as He washed the feet of His disciples.

Invocation and Call to Worship (from Psalm 116)

P In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P How can I repay the Lord for all His goodness to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

C I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all His people.

P Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

C O Lord, truly I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant;
You have freed me from my chains.

P I will sacrifice a thank offering to You and call on the name of the Lord.

C I will fulfill my vows to the Lord in the presence of all His people, in the courts of the Lord's house, in Your midst, O Jerusalem.
Praise the Lord.

Confession and Absolution

P It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for Him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He now showed them the full extent of His love.(John 13:1)

C The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you.(Exodus 12:13a)

P Today we remember the love of Christ and His blood shed for us, as we seek forgiveness. (silence for reflection) Most merciful God,

C we confess to You that we are sinners. In thoughts, words, and actions, we have sinned against You. We have not taken the towel of service for others, but have sought to be served. We have not shown love for You or others, and have often failed both to see Your love for us or show gratitude for it. We need Your precious blood to mark our doors once more, that we may not receive the punishment we deserve for our sin but that Your fierce anger may pass over us. For the sake of Jesus, our serving Lord, forgive us. Amen.

P Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, shed His blood for you that you might be forgiven. By the power of God's promise and according to His command, as God's called servant, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P Let us pray: O Lord Jesus, You have given us Your Holy Sacrament that we may remember Your suffering and death and be forgiven for our sin. May this holy Sacrament empower us to confess our faith boldly, and serve You with a quiet mind; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Old Testament

Exodus 24:3-11

When Moses went and told the people all the Lord's words and laws, they responded with one voice, "Everything the Lord has said we will do." [4] Moses then wrote down everything the Lord had said. He got up early the next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel. [5] Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the Lord. [6] Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar. [7] Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, "We will do everything the Lord has said; we will obey." [8] Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words." [9] Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up [10] and saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear as the sky itself. [11] But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank.

The Gradual

P Christ entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, having obtained eternal redemption.

C He is the mediator of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

P He provided redemption for his people;

C he ordained his covenant forever.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? [17] Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Holy GospelMark 14:12-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" [13] So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. [14] Say to the owner of the house he enters, 'The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' [15] He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there." [16] The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. [17] When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. [18] While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me--one who is eating with me." [19] They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, "Surely not I?" [20] "It is one of the Twelve," he replied, "one who dips bread into the bowl with me. [21] The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born." [22] While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body." [23] Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, and they all drank from it. [24] "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many," he said to them. [25] "I tell you the truth, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God." [26] When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. The third day he rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And he will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
