ADULT BIBLE STUDY! Join Vicar Josh for a study series (and discussion) on "Church and World" in Klein Hall. What does it mean to be the church in the world, today? We'll be skimming the surface of this exciting question as we dig into Scripture, early church history, and contemporary culture. In 2 Timothy, Paul sets his eyes on the post-apostolic church when he charges young Timothy to "follow the pattern of sound words that you have heard from me" and "to guard the good deposit entrusted to you" (2 Timothy 1:13-14). My hope is that each of us is better equipped to follow Jesus Christ and steward God's truths, in the year 2025, in the family, social circles, and work place in which God has called us here in Fairfax, Virginia, and (since this is a transient area!) wherever he sends us next.

Stewardship Moment - April: Renewal and Generosity

As the beauty of spring unfolds and we rejoice in the resurrection of our Savior, we turn our hearts toward renewal and generosity in our stewardship. Just as nature blossoms anew, we are called to renew our commitment to serve one another and extend generosity in sharing the blessings God has bestowed upon us. Following our services, Pastor Andy will continue to invite those who wish to share their Stewardship Moments-stories of how they have made an impact or witnessed acts of kindness. These testimonies are a powerful reminder of God's grace working through us, inspiring us to be the hands and feet of Christ in the world. Proverbs 11:25 says, "A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed." Additionally, 2 Corinthians 9:6 reminds us, "Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously." As we celebrate the new life that Christ offers, let us commit to stewardship that reflects His love and generosity, bringing renewal to our community and beyond.
