The Cross

"But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, 'I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.' "Another said, 'I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I'm on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.' "Still another said, 'I just got married, so I can't come.' ... Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: "If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:18-20, 25-27)

Imagine planning a wedding. The day of the wedding all the guests decline to appear for useless and trite reasons. Would you be offended? Would you be tempted to not speak to them for a long while? Would you still wish to be their friend?

Jesus' parable talks about a king with a similar problem. The excuses these people give are quite ridiculous. The people show they can not plan or do not care about the king. Either way, the king is justified in sending the servant into the streets and alleys for guests.

Jesus tells the parable because the Pharisees find many excuses not to follow Jesus. Their legalism shows their unworthiness to sit in God's eternal banquet. Jesus tells the parable because the laws and regulations of the Pharisees have been their excuses not to follow Him. Now Jesus goes to the "tax collectors and sinners" to find people ready for God's kingdom. The Pharisees are left out of the party because their self-righteousness excludes them.

Jesus' next statements have a much more difficult ring.
"If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." (Luke 14:26-27)

He is saying the Gospel is more important than human relationships. In fact, the cross in this instance has to do with any cost associated with faith in Jesus Christ. Jesus tells the parable following to make the point. The cost of following Jesus can be high!

And yet, God's promise is that we can turn to Jesus Himself. He paid the price for our sins on the cross. He dies so our death needn't frighten us. In fact, Jesus conquered death! Easter shows the Conqueror risen from death itself. We know the high cost is only temporary. We will see Jesus again. Then the cost will be worth every life and everything we've lost for the sake of the Gospel.

God's peace this month,
Pastor Andrew C. Lissy

Vicar's Voice

The other day, I had to pick something up from the Walmart down off Burke Road. Much to my chagrin, one of the first things I saw after entering was a large collection of Christmas decorations – and this is before Halloween! As it seems that certain radio stations start playing carols earlier and earlier while larger stores sell decorations as early as October, I'm beginning to think that the best policy would simply be to sell Christmas-related items year-round. I'd try to be funny and suggest that we devote one or two radio stations to Christmas carols year-round as well, but with the advent of Pandora, Spotify, YouTube, and the plethora of other streaming music stations, you can get Christmas stations whenever and wherever you desire.

I'm continually reminded of Ecclesiastes 3:1, "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven," and of an article I once read online with the particularly pithy headline: "Forget The War On Christmas, The War On Advent Is Worse."

As a child, the holiday season was particularly enchanting, especially when we got time off of school, but now, it just seems like a large blend. Halloween appears early, Christmas a few days later, and it seems that (especially in retail), Thanksgiving almost gets swallowed up entirely, or at least replaced by that holiest of American holidays, Black Friday. It's pretty entertaining to watch people go from giving thanks for bountiful abundance the night before to getting in physical fights over steeply-discounted merchandise the following morning.

With the next few months approaching, I'd invite us all to a level of discernment – not between the secular and religious, but between holidays. While the surrounding culture tells us to prepare, and to purchase, and to make plans for holidays months in the future, I'd invite us to take each holiday individually. Don't make Thanksgiving the beginning of a season or a springboard to Christmas, simply let it be Thanksgiving. Enjoy it. Revel in it.

And after it's over, well, Advent is around the corner, so enjoy Advent. As a reminder to all, traditionally Advent doesn't look forward to Christmas, but to Christ's Second Coming. Try and treat it as a period of nourishment and hope, and not a countdown to Christmas, as many of us (myself included) are wont to do. Christmas is a good enough Christmas without dragging Advent in as well.

All in all, I hope that everyone has an enjoyable Halloween, an enjoyable Thanksgiving, an enjoyable Advent, and an enjoyable Christmas.

Advent Devotionals

Advent marks the beginning of the new Church Year (Dec. 1). Beginning Sunday, November 10, Family Devotional Booklets will be available for you to help you celebrate the season of Advent with your family in a time of family devotions. Two devotional guides are available for your consideration. "Let the Heavens Be Glad," by Henri Nouwen and "Heading to the Manger," by a variety of Christian writers of the past. Feel free to pick up your family/individual Advent devotional guide on the display in the narthex/hallway.

“Remembering and Looking Ahead”

One of the many blessings of having served in fulltime ministry for over 45 years in a liturgical denomination is being able to observe the “Church Year.” As you most likely know, in the Church Year we have the opportunity to remember, celebrate, and look ahead to many of the significant highlights in the life of Christ as well as other important events and occasions in the life of the Church.

Two of those important observances in the liturgical Church Year fall during the month of November. They are All Saints’ Day and Christ the King Sunday. While All Saints’ Day is always a fixed date (November 1), we normally observe it on the first Sunday in November. Christ the King always falls on the final Sunday of the Church Year prior to the First Sunday of Advent.

To me, it’s somewhat ironic how those two observances fall so closely to one another. With All Saints’, one has the opportunity to “Remember.” With Christ the King, we “Look Ahead.” In both instances, we have occasion to give thanks to God for what He has done through those who’ve gone on to the “Larger Life” and for what we can look forward to when Jesus, the King of Kings returns to take us to be with Him. In a real sense, these two observances bookend the Christian life for all of us who live each day remembering AND looking ahead while being in the present.

As we live each day, I’m reminded of the, wonderful passage from Hebrews 12:1, “Therefore since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us . . .” We are being encouraged by the Saints as we move through our lives in anticipation of the return of the King! WOW! Just as important, we encourage one another. We support one another. We love one another. We worship together as the Body of Christ. We are a community, remembering those before us, looking forward at what’s to come and living our lives in the present as God leads us each day.

May your memories and your hopes be an encouragement to you each day that you live your life for the Lord.

Recently Completed Projects Report

Shelter House/Artemis House/NOVACO Unmasking Domestic Violence Fund Raiser October 25, 2019 raised funds and collected donated items for 2 baskets for the auction that will raise approximately $1500 for the organization. We had started out looking for 15 folks to donate $20 each & had an endowment match to complete one basket. We received 30 donations plus specific items and were able to fill 2 baskets. Bridgeway and Ambiente congregations have approached Living Savior to increase their participation in our social ministry programs. Please note: the upcoming projects include a re-designation of endowment funds from solar panels and Florence relief projects.

Thanksgiving Baskets for The Shelter House/Artemis House Shelters for Victims of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Sex Trafficking. We will be collecting supplies for 30 baskets. Point of Contact: Bonnie and Steve Thomas (bandsthoras@verizon.net).

An endowment challenge for at least 15 donors. We will collect the following for each basket:

Non-Perishables: canned goods (3 cans carrots, 3 cans green beans, 2 cans yams, 2 cans cranberry; 2 cans gravy) and 1 bag/box stuffing

Perishables: 3lbs Onions, 3 lbs Potatoes, 1lb butter
One $20 grocery store gift card for Turkey purchase.

Burke/Fairfax CROP Hunger Walk Sunday, November 17, 2019 at 2pm

It's a GOLDEN YEAR for CROP Hunger Walk ...

And you can be part of the celebration!

Known as the "granddaddy of charity walks", CROP is celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2019!

What began on October 17, 1969, in Bismarck, ND, provided the impetus for the explosion of CROP Hunger Walks across the nation. On that day, one thousand people walked over 14 miles in what was the start of the hunger walks related to CROP – and raised $25,000 to help stop hunger. Youths in York County, PA, followed in 1970, officially calling their event "CROP Walk for the Hungry" – and that event has been continuous ever since.

Because teens and their communities in ND and PA cared 50 years ago, millions of people around the nation have since responded and helped to raise more than $1 billion to end poverty and hunger -- at home and around the world. Read The History of the CROP Hunger Walk for more details.

"50 years of walking. 50 years of ending hunger together." Our community's commitment to this incredible CROP legacy will continue with this year's 27th annual Burke/Fairfax CROP Hunger Walk on Sunday, November 17, 2019. The Walk route is about 5 kilometers (2.8 miles) and begins at 2pm at Fairfax Presbyterian Church (10723 Main Street, Fairfax).

PLEASE NOTE:

This date is ONE WEEK EARLIER than our usual "Sunday before Thanksgiving"

Register now online or make a donation to the Walk and help to build a world where there IS enough food and water for all.

Living Savior Preschool

October Highlights

Our annual Fall Festival was a huge success once again! The weather was gorgeous as the families enjoyed the food, face painting, games and bounce house. We were joined by many families for a fun filled morning!

The ever popular Costume Parade & Fall Sing-A-Long took place at the end of the month. For the past month, the children have been learning new songs and preparing to use their singing voices for this very special event! October was a fun month for all!

November Happenings

In November the children will be busy preparing for Thanksgiving. Once again they will be preparing food for their Thanksgiving feasts. Many parent volunteers will help as we come together as a preschool and give thanks at our special Thanksgiving Feasts! Throughout the month of November, the children will collect canned foods as well as other non-perishable items in their classrooms to contribute to the Concordia Food Ministry. This is a wonderful way for the children to experience the gift of giving to others who need our help and also a way that we help the children understand the importance of giving to others as God has given to us.

Special Thanks

Thanksgiving is around the corner. What a marvelous opportunity to give thanks for the gifts that God has given us. The preschool gives special thanks to the church board members for their hard work, talents, time and interest and also to the many volunteers that make our school so very special. Thank you!

Spaces Still Available

If you know of any families who are looking for a warm, positive, Christian preschool experience for their little one please tell them about Living Savior Preschool. We have spaces available in all classes. The preschool offers a warm, Christian environment for young children. We are accredited by the NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children) and have been commended for passing NAEYC's reaccreditation process with extremely high scores! We enroll children from 2 ½ through 5 years of age.

If you, your friends or your neighbors have preschool aged children and are interested in the preschool, please call the office at (703) 352-4208 or you can email the office at: preschool@livingsaviorlutheran.org to set up a tour of the preschool or to speak with the director. Our year is off to a great start!

Playground Update

The preschool received a very generous grant which allows us to replace and enhance some of our aging playground equipment. The new equipment has been ordered and will be installed soon.

December Highlights

On December 5th and 6th the children of Living Savior Preschool will attend a Tiny Tots Concert at Robinson Secondary School. This is our second year attending Robinson's concert after going to Woodson High School for many years. The Tiny Tots Concert is a perfect way to get into the Christmas spirit! We are looking forward to a wonderful program that is created for the preschool community.

Throughout the month of December, the children will be preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. They will be making ornaments for our preschool Christmas tree and cards and gifts for their parents. The Christmas Program will be presented to the parents and families on December 11th at 12:15. All families are invited to attend. On the 19th and 20th of December the children will celebrate the birth of Jesus with birthday cake and special readings about the birth of our Savior.

Christmas Wishes Granted

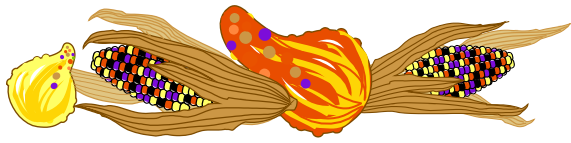

For the past nineteen years during the month of December, Living Savior Preschool has reached out and generously supported local families and children who find themselves in need due to circumstances beyond their control. This year the LSP community is again supporting NOVACO in conjunction with Miki Kolton and LSLC church by providing Christmas gifts from wish lists for the children and their families. With the generous support from the "Angels" of Living Savior Preschool and Church, these families will have their wishes granted as we spread the true meaning of the Christmas spirit!

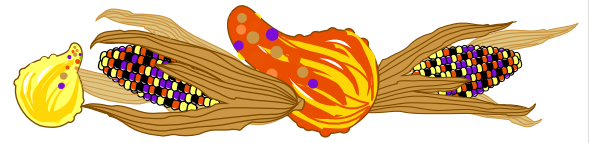

Christmas Holidays

The preschool will be closed from December 21st – January 5th for Christmas break as our children and staff celebrate the birth of Jesus with their families. Preschool classes will resume on Monday, January 6th.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the Preschool Staff and Children!
